| Wednesday, March 12.—The trial of Brigham Young and other prisoners comes off early in April.  |          |         |
| ROME, March 12.—It is rumored that Prince Frederick Charles, of Prussia, who has recently asserted his claims to the candidature for the throne of Spain.  |          |         |
| LONDON, March 12.—Lady Mordaunt is pronounced by medical authority incurably insane, and the petition of Sir Charles, her husband, has been dismissed.   |          |         |
| HAVANA, March 12.—The Russian fleet, with the Grand Duke Grand on board, sailed for Rio de Janeiro. The forts and vessels in the harbor fired a salute.  |          |         |
| WALSH, March 12.—Lady Mordaunt is pronounced by medical authority incurably insane, and the petition of Sir Charles, her husband, has been dismissed.  |          |         |
| NEW YORK, March 12.—Gould has just resigned the presidency at the Erie railroad at a brief meeting of the Board of Directors, at which General Sickles was present.  |          |         |
| WASHINGTON, March 12.—Gen. Sickles has been granted extended leave of absence from Spain. Nothing further has been done by the administration in relation to the mission.  |          |         |
| NEW YORK, March 12.—The news of the overthrow of the Erie seems to be received everywhere with satisfaction. The morning papers regard the results of yesterday as a great triumph in the interests of honesty and reform.   |          |         |
| ALBANY, N. Y., March 12.—In the senate this morning a bill was introduced repealing the laws allowing sectarian schools to participate in the school fund, and all schools using part of that fund must be under the jurisdiction of the superintendent of common schools.   |          |         |
| NASHVILLE, March 12.—The legislature of Tennessee met in called session today, the principal object being to apportion the state into congressional districts, and to devise means for improving the state finances. Governor Brown sent in a brief message, re-hearing the topics of legislation by which the legislature must be governed. |          |         |
| MEMPHIS, March 12.—The "Avalanche" Jackson, Miss., special says that yesterday the civil rights bill, giving equal rights to all persons on all public conveyances, and in hotels, theaters and other places of amusement, became a law. A negro and his wife took a seat in a theater on Monday night to test the law, and were ejected.    |          |         |
| PEORIA, March 12.—The supreme court to day set aside the verdict in the Modena case, and ordered a new trial.  |          |         |
